

An extensive refurbishment programme using a flexible design concept at the Sundorne Retail Park whilst the park remained fully open and accessible which, whilst adding a layer of complication to works scheduling but was successfully completed.

Aluminium but timber lookalike horizontal Brise Soleil infills within signage

