

Science HUB, Manchester

Diversity and WPL are synonymous at the Manchester Science Park Hub as we disguised another potential eye sore in the city centre with an open top plant screen, hiding essential environmental control to the busy floors below.

The screen comprises 2.3 metre high slotted perforated panels over two areas covering nearly 80 metres and all supported with our range of unique aluminium structures, cleverly fixed to the concrete roof structure.

