

New student accommodation in Newcastle comprising 209 apartments designed to incorporate the maximum number of features in keeping with the site's Roman connections.

The complete WPL package provided vertical box shading, stainless steel vertical mesh screens, a corten feature wall and picture perforated mesh panels depicting a Roman soldier which was the final design feature to pay homage to the site's heritage.

