

Osiers Apartments

W P L supplied vertical extruded frames to the external facades which assist in making the lived-in environment more private for the occupants of this luxury real estate in London. The feature was enhanced by mixing the colours with a gradual change from deep red to yellow.

